Stephens County American Farmers and Ranchers (AFR) agents Becky Graham and Cody Gerard organized the Stephens County Gold Star Classic that was held Feb. 20 in conjunction with the Stephens County Junior Livestock Show. The Gold Star Classic is a livestock show for children with special needs. FFA advisers and special-needs departments at all county schools were contacted and invited to participate. Local FFA students offered their experience and animals to help make this event possible. Show participants were awarded a trophy and certificate for their hard work. The event is planned to occur annually.
