Your Touchstone Energy® Cooperative
IS YOUR BUSINESS CONNECTED?
Cotton Electric Cooperative's Co-op Connections program has been a tremendous success. Since launching the program in March 2008, CEC members have been taking advantage of discounts offered by participating businesses, which have reported an increase in traffic.
It's easy to become a participating business: Offer a discount to CEC members and commit for one year. There is no fee involved for participating businesses, only the discount you offer.
You'll see your business name advertised on our website and in CEC's monthly newspaper, The Current. We also feature participating businesses in the paper. And best of all, you'll have the Cotton Electric marketing efforts to back you.
If you have questions or would like to join the program, feel free to contact us at 580-875-3351. We hope to hear from you soon!

Use energy wisely.

Parting Shots

Cotton Electric employees participate in safety drills throughout the year. Above, lineman apprentice Zac Smith practices a rescue from a truck basket, a drill for linemen and other employees likely to be in the field. Below, lineman apprentice Jeremy Crabtree performs a hurt man drill, in which line workers are required to issue a Mayday call, climb a pole and lower a dummy to the ground.
